

Family Income, Newfoundland and Labrador, 2015

Family Types	Number	Median Total Income ($)
Total Families	160,140	79,260
Number of Persons	434,970
Couple Families	134,880	88,950
Number of Persons in Couple Families	372,840
Lone-Parent Families	25,250	39,140
Number of Persons in Lone-Parent Families	62,130
Persons not in Census Families	83,370	...
Employment Characteristics		Median Employment Income ($)
Number of families with employment income	132,400	70,920
Number of persons not in census families with employment	44,530	27,480
"Single-earner" and "dual-earner" Couple families		Median Employment Income ($)
Number of dual-earner Couple Families	78,520	93,940
Number of single-earner-male families	20,510	39,500
Number of single-earner-female families	10,210	15,650
Government Transfers		Median Amount ($)
All families (couple + lone-parent families)	146,650	15,730
Persons not in census families	73,160	13,680
Labour Income		Median Amount ($)
Families with labour income	133,870
Number receiving employment insurance benefits	60,140	11,000
Persons not in census families with labour income	45,440
Number receiving employment insurance benefits	14,120	9,220

Note: Data derived from personal income tax returns.

Source: Statistics Canada, Small Area and Administrative Data Division, CANSIM table 111-0009

July 12, 2017