These tables are a supplement to the Historical Statistics of Newfoundland and Labrador Volume I(1) which was prepared by the Economics and Statistics Division, Department of Finance, Government of Newfoundland and Labrador, in October of 1970.

As this supplement is intended merely to update the data presented in Volume I(1), no detailed notes, definitions, or concepts are included in the supplement, and data from Volume I(1) is included only where necessary to clarify the presentation of the supplemental data. However, some of the 227 tables were not updated because the relevant data was not available, but these instances have been noted in the following table.

Copies of the Historical Statistics of Newfoundland and Labrador can be obtained from the Department of Supply and Services, Government of Newfoundland and Labrador, St. John's, Newfoundland, upon payment of $4.50 per copy (Newfoundland and Labrador residents should remit 7% sales tax).

An errata sheet for Volume I(1) has been included at the end of this supplement.

1 Old Age Assistance has been discontinued.

2 Includes persons receiving assistance in the form of food, fuel, rent, clothing, household maintenance and utilities, board and lodging, burials, housekeeper allowances, travelling, storage/trans. household effects and repairs to houses.

Data on the number of individuals and heads of families receiving social assistance in the form of food orders only is no longer available, so this section has been changed to include those receiving all forms of short-term social assistance.

1 The actual computer program is carried out once a year and current seasonal adjustments are made by dividing the current figures by the predicted seasonal factors. The annual computer program not only predicts new seasonal factors, but also revises the entire historic series of seasonally-adjusted data in light of the most recent information on changes in seasonality.

Explanation:

1. The latest figures are subject to revision.
2. Certain counties are combined because of secrecy.
3. Data are not fully audited.
4. Data are incomplete since some establishments are included in provincial totals but are not assigned to counties.

Note: The data in the above table was collected in a Statistics Canada monthly survey of employment and payrolls covering firms having 20 or more employees in any month of the year. The following industries are excluded: agriculture, fishing and trapping, education, hospitals, religious and welfare organizations, public administration and defence.

NOTES: These definitions have changed since the Historical Statistics was published in 1970:-

Extent of Employment: This question is designed to indicate the extent to which men are engaged in the inshore fisheries. This measurement is to be strictly on the basis of time engaged in fishing activity. Fishing activity will, therefore, be defined to cover the time spent preparing for, actually fishing, and storing boats and gear away after the season. When considering the time spent preparing, do not include repairing boats or gear during the off-season. However, such time spent during the fishing season should be considered as fishing activity.

Full-time: Those engaged in fishing activity 10 months or more of the year.

Part-time: Those engaged in fishing activity for less than 10 but more than 5 months of the year.

Casual: Those engaged for less than 5 months of the year.
